We're going to write our solons

Every few years with regularity the Postoffice asks Congress to increase rates and since 1945 the Postoffice Department has operated in the red. Postal officials ascribe this to (1) a substantial increase in volume, more employees needed to handle the mail (2) subsidies and (3) pay raises for employees. The first of these reasons really has no merit unless coupled with the explanation that the class of service offered operates in the red at all levels of volume. In most of private industry increased volume means higher profit, not losses.

For whatever reason the Postoffice operates at a loss, it can also be said that during the period of 1945 to now postal service costs considerably more for less quality.

This year the administration, to combat deficit that would reach $1.2 billion recommended increases in charges for first, second and third class mail. The House Postoffice and Civil Service Committee is now considering a bill which makes drastic changes in President Johnson's request for rate increases by recommending that increases in first class mail would be more than recommended and second class rates would follow the recommendation but over a three-year stretch while third class mail (junk mail) would pay considerably less than recommended.

First class mail is generally regarded as paying its way or more with second class mail, newspapers, magazines, etc., approximately paying for service received, while third class or junk mail does not come close to paying its fair share. It is to this third class mail that we draw your attention. From the standpoint of common good this mail is the least worthwhile of the classes. The recipients have not indicated a desire, as they have of second class mail, to receive it. But nevertheless the House committee seems likely to increase the disparity in rates favoring this least worthwhile class of users.

It is true that some large users of this class of mail are built around the cheap rates of third class mail. These are usually mail order firms in direct competition with local merchants, usually promoting second class material and providing no post sale service.

It is our belief that this least worthwhile or junk mail should at the minimum pay its own way. We intend to write Senators James Eastland and John Stennis and Congressman William Colmer our thoughts on the question. In case you want to join us the Senators' address is Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C., and Congressman William Colmer's address is House Office Building, Washington, D. C. After all, it is the taxpayers, some of them in direct competition with the mail order business, who are footing much of the deficit.

Classified ad policy change

We find ourselves forced to make an unpleasant policy change. For seven years the Echo has taken classified ads over the telephone and by mail and charged them to the advertisers. This was primarily a courtesy because at best keeping the records is a nuisance. Anyhow, we are moving to an easier policy where, except for regular customers with established credit, we will not take classified ads over the telephone and those sent in by mail must be accompanied by payment. For those who mail in their ads, it will be easy to compute the cost as we operate on a word basis. Ad rates appear at the top of the classified ads.

We are sorry to cease taking ads by phone and mail and charging them, but the truth of the matter is that too many people just are not paying for ads and the percentage of people doing this seems to be increasing.

County tax base climbs

The continuing climb of assessable property within the county has enabled the school district to balance books with a projected $9,192 surplus for fiscal '68.

With a record assessed valuation of $9,887,882, the county's school budget is $551,478, based on a 25 mill levy.

In the assessment total, $3,900,330 is for real estate, $1,745,402, personal property, and $4,002,150 for utilities.

Last year's totals were $1,782,565, personal property, $4,107,669, real estate, and $3,982,362, public service, for a total assessment of $8,882,596.

In fiscal 1965-66, $2,827,502 of the total of $7,473,730 was for public service corporations, $3,688,229, real estate, and $957,949, personal property.

The '64-'65 school budget was based on a $6,628,282 assessment. Real estate was $3,814,583, personal property, $399,745, and public utilities, $324,354.

Of mailboxes, girl scouts

Letters to the editor are always welcome. They should be on pertinent topics, in good taste and limited to 300 words. The Sea Coast Echo requires also that each letter be properly signed by the writer before it will be considered for publication. No letters unsigned or containing pseudonyms will be published.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo

Saturday night or early Sunday morning I had my mail box stolen, post and all. We have had this trouble for four years. I want to give fair warning to the persons or person doing this that we are going to put up another box and it will be carefully watched.

Sunday morning we called the sheriff's office to report this and were told he was in church. Good for him but as we knew there was no church that lasted all day and not a call from the sheriff, we put in another call around 3 p.m. to report the theft. We were told by some young man in the office that Sheriff Depree would be out but he was having car trouble. Why kind of law do we have here? Their vehicles are too run down to travel. When we called Sheriff Depree he was out for 15 minutes.

I am only going to say one thing. That mail box is pretty important to me. As it is I have to walk two blocks to get the mail. It is just as important as a house full of furniture being stolen. I am not the only one that is having this trouble here in this supposed to be high and dry place. We have reported this. Not one thing is put in the paper warning the thieves. We will do our policing now and it won't be the sheriff's office we will call when we catch them. It will be the owner's as we won't have time to call the law department.

MRS. MABEL ARN

Bay St. Louis.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Sylvan Lader is still sheriff. Depree is chief deputy. This type of complaint should also be taken up with the Postoffice Department.)

Editor, Sea Coast Echo

Many thanks for your fine coverage of all Girl Scouts activities in this area. And a very special thanks for the article Polly wrote last week. It sounded just like Julie Delph. Very well done.

We have an all struggle getting leaders in this area. And your picture do more than anything to help with this problem.

On behalf of all the Girl Scouts and their leaders, I again say "Thank You".

Sincerely,
MRS. JAMES D. RYAN
Neighborhood Chairman
Gulf Pines Girl Scout Council.

"A Conservative View"

by James A. Kilpatrick

It has been the picturesque custom, over a long period of years, for the American Medical Association and the country's conservative editorial writers to holler "socialized medicine" at the first glimmer of governmental regulation of the healing arts. Much of this has been more bellowing. Despite the paperwork irritations of Medicare, the practice of medicine in the United States remains remarkably free.

Now comes Louisiana's Senator Russell B. Long, championing the cause of Medicare. He has a little daughter of a bill, known as the "National Formulary Bill." It is over 600 pages long, but this bill will impose the heavy hand of a new federal bureaucracy upon physicians and hospitals across the land. Certainly, Little has been written of Long's proposal, yet it ranks among the most drastic measures put before the 90th Congress.

Introduced on Aug. 13, the bill purports to increase the control of the federal government over the practice of medicine. It would establish a new Federal Formulary Commission, which would be charged with the task of determining which drugs and biologicals are "essential" for the country as a whole. The commission would be charged with the task of determining which drugs and biologicals are "essential" for the country as a whole.

But this is not the end of the matter. The National Formulary Commission also would be charged with the task of determining which drugs and biologicals are "essential" for the country as a whole.

"qualified drugs" would fix a "reasonable price range" for each drug. And no reimbursement would be made under any Federal welfare program beyond the reasonable price range for the qualified drugs. The effect would be to create an governmentally approved list of price-controlled drugs.

In Long's view, the plan would save money—about $100 million a year. But would it? The Formulary Commission would be authorized to charge "such technical assistance" as may be required to carry out the bill. An estimate of the cost of the bill is $100 million a year.

Yet money is the least of the bill's problems. The great danger of the bill is that it would establish a new federal bureaucracy. The bill would establish a new Federal Formulary Commission, which would be charged with the task of determining which drugs and biologicals are "essential" for the country as a whole.

MONTREAL IS... asking a service station attendant for elaborate directions only to have him look at you with a blank expression and a "Parlez-vous francais, mademoiselle?"... the flutter of hundreds of red and white Canadian flags and blue and white Expo '67 flags draped on store fronts... at least half of the male population named Pierre... a blond, accompanied only by a trumpet and a bright red guitar, singing "Gustavatore"...

Standing in line between a woman dressed in a pale blue suit and a pipe-smoking Londoner... the hum of the Hovercraft as it speeds over the water on a cushion of air... Russian strawberry ice cream being sold outside the Soviet pavilion... Habitat, a new concept in urban living, apartment houses resembling a child's blocks haphazardly stacked... a young Mountie in his immaculate red jacket grinning sheepishly as he poses for pictures... movies of all types, on many subjects shown on giant screens, 180 degree screens, 360 degree screens, rotating screens and even on Hovercraft... soft drinks without ice... the crack of the swinging door of the Golden Garter Saloon in an "authentic" Western town... pay tolls... a giant shot-glass bubble corving as a home for the U.S. exhibits... a "dancing fountain" and fireworks display at midnight... two children wearing huge towering black felt combs on their heads... a staccato chattered voice anchoring under their breath as they watch the tired visitors hurry past their point... the Minirail (a small monorail) going through the U.S. pavilion like a blue-and-white worm biting its way through a crystal apple... small German sausages surrounded by hot, crusty dough... the wall of a store announcing the approach of a visiting dignitary... a stark, white tower with Union Jack against the blue, cloudless sky... discovering a beautiful, century-old merry-go-round placed in a relatively untraveled part of the amusement section... the surge to get "passports" stamped upon entering each pavilion... sitting on a breezy terrace overlooking a marina filled with large and small boats from all over... walking from 3 to 4 hours to get into the larger city of Montreal... the constant college students pushing lighters around in a bicycle-driven rickshaw called a Podcab... the cry of barbers as they urge passersby to try their luck in winning large, fuzzy stuffed animals... the amusement center.

Only teacher lack is a band director of Jones, the superintendent reported.

Contracts were approved for seven school bus drivers. William Moore, Wilmer Seymour, Bill Torry, Toy Todford, Ronald Thomas, Thomas E. Johnson and W. J. Cameron, McCulloch noted that while the buses aren't hauling as many kids they are not saving one mile.

The plan to build one full scale baseball diamond and one 2/3 scale park was advanced by Lee Paul in behalf of the city parks and playgrounds department and Dixie Youth Baseball, Inc. He explained existing facilities on the McDonald property at Ulman and Dunbar Avenue can't handle the 30-odd teams playing in the summer.

Robert L. Hamilton, board president, noted the school system had acquired that property for its own growth, adding that a field house and tennis courts were planned there eventually. The lease proposition will be referred to the board attorney, Sam L. Farrow, Jr.

Current enrollment of 2,107 is 47 over last year, Superintendent J.D. McCulloch reported. Bay Senior High School has 472 students against 360 last year, largely because of transfers with the closing of St. Joseph Academy. The Junior High has 478, Waveland has 199, and North Bay has 554 for a total of 759 in the first six grades, while there are 406 at Valona C. Jones. McCulloch attributed the decline at VJ to pupils transferring either to Pearl River or Bay High.

LITTLE MISS CHER - Tammy Black, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Black of Bay St. Louis, is crowned Little Miss CHER for 1967 at Hilltoppers (CB) Jambooree, Aug. 14, in Cambridge, Ohio. Black, a heavy equipment operator and member of Bay St. Louis Civil Defense, was working in area at time of Jambooree. Presenting plaque is Norma Euton, chairman of event.

3 dairies to split county school trade
County school trustees split the milk business three ways Sept. 5 after opening four identical bids of seven cents per half pint.

Borden Co. of Biloxi will handle Hancock North Central School's requirements; Dairy Fresh, with Jack Shaw of Lakeshore distributor, Gulfview School, and Barber Pure Milk Co., Gulfport, the Pearl River School.

Trustees acknowledged they would reap the benefit of state school funds for these students next year but pointed out they were not receiving any tuition fees. Other systems make sure they are paid in advance for accepting Hancock students, they said.

A study is to be made to determine whether or not tuition will be assessed in future years.

Dwayne Palmer was hired as general maintenance man for all three schools to replace Lane Lumpkin, recently resigned.

Trustees also adopted bus conduct rules that applied last year and congratulated North Central's Superintendent Robert Clapp for publishing a new hand book for students. This contains a general outline of school procedures, courses of study, prerequisites for advancement and general department and discipline.

In an effort to keep school bus costs down, the board approved a request from transportation supervisor Ezell Lee that operators of private buses should be charged a prorated amount when, for some reason, they have to use county buses instead of their own.

Seven students were accepted from outside of the county for instruction at North Central School this year. Approved for transfer were from Pearl River County, K.L. and R. Lynn Necaise, from Harrison County, Mrs. Marie Stochatill, Cathy Bradley and Leland, Linda and Lemuel Kendrick.

Dixie League seeks to rent Tiger estate
A proposal to lease property of the Bay St. Louis Municipal School District adjacent to Tiger Stadium for the city's summer recreation program was taken under advisement by the board of trustees Monday night.

The plan to build one full scale baseball diamond and one 2/3 scale park was advanced by Lee Paul in behalf of the city parks and playgrounds department and Dixie Youth Baseball, Inc. He explained existing facilities on the McDonald property at Ulman and Dunbar Avenue can't handle the 30-odd teams playing in the summer.

Jail breakers
call it quits
in Florida

Two prisoners who escaped from Hancock County Jail sometime last Monday morning, and fled in a 1965 Must-ang, apparently taken from Fred Hoagland Ford Sales, gave patrolmen just outside of Mullaanna, Fla., after their car ran out of gas, later in the day.

The pair, Leo Howard Anderson, Jr., 20, and Lambert V. Swafford, 23, had been arraigned by the January grand jury for the nearly $500,000 robbery Nov. 7 of the American Food Store in Bay St. Louis.

Sheriff Sylvan Ladner, 37, said the pair used a steel cutting tool to cut through the bars in a ground floor window corner, forced the bars aside and after literally sawing the bars, slipped through. Not too difficult for Anderson, who weighs only 115 pounds, but quite a feat for the 165-pound Swafford.

After scaling the fence surrounding the jail, crossing Main Street and entering the Post Agency, by breaking the lock on the rear door, the escapes took the keys to the car in which they made their getaway.

Sheriff Ladner said the pair fled to Florida, where they were brought back from California just a little over two weeks ago after being arrested on burglary charges there. A stand trial in September was set.

Wavelander
in med school
fresh class

The 13th incoming class of medical students at the University Medical Center in Jackson will include William W. Bradford of Wavelander, according to Dr. John A. Cronvall, associate director.

For the second year, 85
new students were selected competitively for the medical school freshman class. During its first 11 years, the center accepted no more than 80 freshmen each fall. Now, it is expanding all its training programs as rapidly as possible in response to the state's need for more doctors, nurses, and other health professionals.

Bradford is the son of Mrs.
William H. Bradford of Wavelander. He took his pre-medical work at Loyola and the University of Southern Mississippi.

Box count protests uncertain

Examination of the ballot boxes for the Beat 4 election is under way. The boxes were counted on Monday, but there is still some uncertainty about the results.

The law provides 21 days after the official canvass for complaints. The canvass was Aug. 31, which indicates next Wednesday is the deadline. J. Peck, Mauffray was certified by the committee as winner by 11 votes.

The ballot examination by Bert Stieffel, apparent loser to incumbent Walter J. Phillips for state representative district 2, began at the same time as the Beat 4 check and wound up Friday. It is understood Stieffel was turned over his findings to an attorney in an effort to decide whether to contest the case.

Seven boxes were examined Friday by H. Dean, incumbent Beat 4 supervisor who trailed J. A. Russ, III, by 132 votes. There was no indication this week whether the check would be resumed or dropped but observers said the boxes examined showed little or no change from the official canvass.

Second Master Point game will be played next Thursday. Any new interested in playing can contact Mrs. Lelyn Nybo or Mrs. Stephen Hastings.

to close them out was held up, pending advice of the board attorney.

After Hubbard reported he had inspected the complaint of Lawrence Carco that George Luntich had fenced in a public road in the Lakeshore area, the board directed Luntich to leave the road open as it has been publicly maintained for 37 years.

Zip code use hike is sought

Postal Services Day, Wednesday, will be marked with the delivery of householder zip code kits, according to Andy Becker, postmaster, Bay St. Louis.

The kits will contain eight postcards, for mailing back to the postoffice, to request the zip code numbers of addresses for which this information is not known.

At the postoffice the card will be completed with the zip code number sought and returned to the customer.

Construction will start on Rt. 607 job

Work is scheduled to begin the end of September on construction of Rt. 607 between U.S. 90 and Interstate 10 near NASA in Hancock County, according to John L. Smith, Southern District Highway Commissioner.

The State Highway Commission authorized T. L. James and J. L. Ruston, La., the lead bidder, to start construction. The project includes grading, drainage, culverts, box bridge, erosion control and incidental cold plant mix surfacing for a distance of 3.633 miles. The bid was $516,991.

The Hattiesburg district office of the State Highway Department will supervise. Dan Hillman of Poplarville is project engineer.

Improvements also will be made on U.S. 90 between Hattiesburg Point and Biloxi in Harrison County. James also has this $558,309 contract.

THANK YOU!

My wife and family join me in expressing our gratitude for the wonderful support we received in Hancock and Pearl River Counties.

I will continue, as a private citizen, to encourage programs of education, industry, and aid to the elderly, which are so vitally needed in our district and state.

May God's richest blessings be on you and yours.

This Land is His...

No other profession can be as satisfying as farming. The farmer daily sees the fulfillment of his labors. The seeds he carefully sows become the full tender grain he takes to market.

He knows the joys of each season. He sees the miracle of birth and the Master Plan in death.

His land may have been in his family for generations; it may have only recently purchased. But the land is his... and there is security, pride of ownership and an awareness of the elements of the good life.

By providing electric power to run his farm to increase his production, reduce his labor thereby increase his income, your electric power association has helped to make the life of the farmer in Mississippi a life to be envied.

Rosary Hartel wed to Indianapolis man

The wedding of Miss Rosary Vora Hartel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Camillo Hartel of Waveland and New Orleans, to John Terence O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas O'Brien of Indianapolis, Ind., was solemnized at high noon Sept. 5 at St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland.

Rev. Kevin Bambrick performed the double ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father the bride had as matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Robert James Brent, Jr., of Midland, Mich. Her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Barkdale Nix of New Orleans, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Kathie Ann Pearce and Ann Darnell Korr, both of New Orleans.

Michael Dennis O'Brien of Indianapolis was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Stephen Camille Hartel, Jr., the bride's brother, Frederick Charles Carr of Oak Park, Ill., and John Shannon Wade of Chicago, Ill.

Ushering were Joseph Francis Hartel, brother of the bride, Dr. Ralph R. Nix, James Thomas Nix, III, cousin of the bride, all of New Orleans, and Robert James Brent, Jr., of Midland.

The Hartel summer home at 204 Waveland Beach was the scene of the reception afterwards.

Later in the day the couple departed on a honeymoon after which they will live in St. Louis, Mo., and pursue graduate studies at the University of St. Louis.

The bride, a graduate of Sophie Newcomb College, received her master's degree in theater last month from Tulane University. The groom was graduated from St. Edward's University at Austin, Tex., in August and received the Time Magazine Award for advertising design.

MR. AND MRS. C.H. LADNER

Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Ladner pronounce wedding vows

Patricia Elaine Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eph Elliott, 336 Carroll Ave., was the bride of Carlos H. Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ladner, in a double ring ceremony Sunday in Our Lady of Gulf Catholic Church, Magnolia.

A procession of white Alibon chrysantheums and white palms decorated the altar and Mrs. John McKenna, daughter, rendered the prelude and recessional music. Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride had Mrs. J. G. Brown, Jr., sister of the groom, as her matron of honor.

Other attendants were Victoria and Alice Ladner, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Maria Daniels, New Orleans, sister of the bride. Sherrill and Elliott were her sister's bridesmaids and Gina Ladner, and Melissa Marango, were girls.

George W. Day, Waveland, was best man.

Groomsmen were Victor and Tommy Ladner, and the Elliotts, of Baton Rouge, and Kenneth Pat Gaynor, son of Junior groomsmen and Arthur J. Bourgeois of Konnor, Waveland.

Ushers were Larry Ladner, Ory Bourgeois, and Patrick and Daniel Lagry of New Orleans serving as ushers.

A reception followed in St. Clare's parish hall, where the bride was assisted in receiving by their families.

Arrangements of white chrysantheums and palms decorated the reception hall and the bride's table was covered with a white cloth trimmed with a ruffled edge. It held the wedding cake decorated with white roses and white orchids.

Minors, Anthony Pitato, Jr., and Craig, Larry Smith, Gilbert, and R.J. Reinke acted as the punch bowl. Seated at the table were Minors, Guy Drow, Gordon and George Day, Al Baw and Raymond Hoffmann. Sandra Cayton, Kathy, Alina Bridget Haggerty, Susan Marango, Fern Lewis, Mary Cavato, Jello Ann Baw.

FROM GERRY LANE CHEVROLET.

I had been hearing about all good deals being given at Gerry Lane Chev. I also have my car and old friend Fritz and all my life, so I came to Gerry Lane and the best deal I could get any where on the coast. I recommend Gerry Lane Chev. and my friend Fritz to all my friends.

ROY KEEL
Gulfport, Miss.

The status symbol has become an 'in' thing all over, and even way down here on the living breathing end of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, we have our own. Of course there's a difference. In New York City the epitome of affluence is ownership of a plush penthouse and maybe a small villa on the Riviera in Hollywood, it's mini and diamonds. But, in Hancock County, it's a big custom built Cadillac, but, in Hancock County, the absolute height of keeping ahead of the times is a possession of a red and white chip coupons for the remainder of their lives, for at least a million tons have already washed off Bay St. Louis streets in the past two years. Some say still years ago, it well but will take a rusted red dirt any day.

On to news of week

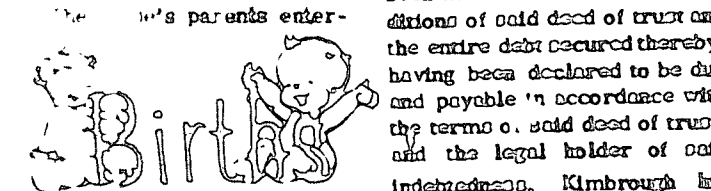

The wedding of Miss Marian Mrs. Kernion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Michael Labedoyere Kernion, and Mr. Stanley H. Berlin, took place at the home of the bride's parents, 1115 N. 1st St., Bay St. Louis, Miss., at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 10, 1967. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. R. R. Non-Rod, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Bay St. Louis. The bride wore a white gown and carried a bouquet of flowers. The groom wore a dark suit. The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. David Michael Labedoyere Kernion, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Stanley H. Berlin. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

VIP's attend coffee, make trip

Hubert Griffin, the Republican's fair haired boy, displayed a large number of party whites when he visited supporters here Saturday. First he shared free coffee with prospective voters in "Costal Savings" parking lot then he ventured down to Waveland where he might have found one or two Republicans, that is, if Johnny Lewis wasn't too busy with patients, and several others, whom we won't name, weren't laundering their long white robes.

Fresh off boat

Joye and Jack Jacob have been working like little devils in preparation for a long-awaited visit from his step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, who arrived Monday from New York. The couple flew to New York then took a train to New York City, where they spent the night before arriving in Bay St. Louis on Tuesday morning.

Open house

Millie and Eddie Carriere, who have been married for 25 years, are just out of the hospital and ready to open their home to friends and family. The couple are planning a "open house" for the latter part of the month, and are looking forward to seeing many of their friends and family members.

Bowling bits

Monday night ladies' league got under way on Sept. 11, and the Thursday night Miss Fitts will begin a 35-week schedule tonight.

SPORTS

Sports reporter Eddie Engelhorn doubted many stories of large catches by Filio Cuevas, Sam Nightingale, Jack Kromer, Camille Schuster, the Long and others until he met him this Friday and returned home with a beautiful story of a catch.

TERRY LYNN TRAMMELL

New Orleans couple plan to be married

Mr. and Mrs. David Harper Trammell of New Orleans, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Terry Lynn, to Daniel Joseph McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Daniel McCormick, also of New Orleans.

The wedding will take place Oct. 28 in St. Paul's Methodist Church.

The bride-elect is a great granddaughter of Edward C. Kimmel of Bay St. Louis.

City Echoes

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Blazie, who were married 30 years Sept. 5, observed the occasion with their family Sunday. They were joined by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Blazie and daughter, Machele, and Mrs. Blazie's mother, Mrs. Ashley Henderson of Gretna, La.

Mrs. Alma Quintini celebrated her birthday last Tuesday with a family gathering at her Bay Royale apartment. Senior Master Sgt. and Mrs. Dennis Helms and children, who have just returned from a two-year tour of duty in the Philippine Islands, were joined Sunday at the home of Mrs. Helms brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Bonck, by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Arceneaux, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Arceneaux of Bay St. Louis, and the Menou Arceneaux family of Lafayette, La. The Helms will go to Shreveport, La., where he will be assigned to Barksdale AFB.

Charlie Boh, who spent the last three months with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Boh, returned to his home in San Diego, Calif., last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Arceneaux were house guests over the weekend of her aunt, Mrs. B.W. Faulkner and family, in New Orleans.

Capt. and Mrs. T. J. Bourgeois and children of Fort Rucker, Ala. will spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Buckley.

Michelle Kreek of Norristown, Pa., in visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit McKay, at their home in Waveland.

Katherine and Al Keriton arrived to spend the weekend in Waveland and recuperate from their son's recent wedding. Little (Mrs. Hilaire Ogden told her it's just as well she doesn't have a daughter, she'd have never survived the ordeal.

Get well soon

A very special get well wish is on the way to a good friend, Helen (Mrs. Willie) Merwyn, who has been a patient in Hancock General since returning from her Niagara Falls vacation. Her husband, Willie, became ill on the trip, but looks and feels just great again.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Jill (Mrs. Gerald) Cox. Her mother passed away last Thursday following a long illness.

So sorry to hear that the Roy Rush family will be departing their Pine Ridge home next week for Cocoa Beach.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Hideous piles of garbage all but piled up over the NO DUMPING sign on Central Avenue, similarly unattractive bunks of broken gear, wall scattered along Jackson Ridge, marring an otherwise lovely view; the all but empty beach, peopled with a few small boys and a large number of frolicking dogs, and the deep croaking sounds of a huge bull frog, effectively hidden in some tall brown swamp grass.

Rocks trip

Overzealous line drew rough penalties but a full defense and a strong running offense accounted for a 20-6 victory for Stanislaus' Rockchaws over the Baptist of New Orleans on the Rocks' grid.

Friday Stanislaus hosts East Central Hornets of Hurley community in on County who defeated Avila 18-12 Friday in a Agula River Conference. The Hornets, noted for never-say-die attitude, sparked by quarterback Goff who fired a 70-yard for one touchdown and six yards for another. Rocks were guilty of 14 violations for a total of 85 yards in penalties but head Billy Murphy figures will settle down as the progresses.

Friday night neither team scored in the first period, Rocks defense stopping the running attack and smothering every pass attempt but as and other penalties nullified Stanislaus' score.

threats. In the second period Rock quarterback Steve Worrell passed to running back Ronnie Prudhomme in the end zone for the first tally. It was a 30-yard play. Manager Mike Gemelli, who kicked two of three extra points, kicked the point after.

Stanislaus scored again in the third period when Prudhomme capped a sustained drive scoring from the three and the half ended 13-0. M.J. Rhodas accounted for the third in the fourth quarter on a sensational 18-yard run and Gemelli's kick was good. Mid-city's only score was in the final frame when Larry Brown caught a long pass and sprinted for paydirt. The play was good for 85 yards.

Statistics with Stanislaus first: first downs, 9-3; passes, 18-7; comp., 5-3; int., by 1-1; fumbles, 1-1; lost, 1-3; yards rushing, 81-41; passing, 87-106; net yards, 148-167; punts, 4-6; avg., 31.6-23.4; penalties, 14-80; 6-50.

Stone throws Tigers

The high, defending champion, and probably the strongest power in the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference this year, just had much for its lighter and less experienced Bay High Friday night.

Bay High, as the Baycats, were the only team to have a power for its teams. The Tigers, taken good in the first half, but they were not able to score. The first half was a tie, 0-0. In the second half, the Baycats scored 14 points, 14-0. The final score was 14-0.

First downs, 6-10, passes, 16-11, completed, 5-7, int., 1-4, fumbles, 3-2, lost, 1-2.

yard rush, 13-20, passing, 73-113, total net yards, 97-319, punts, 3-2, avg., 38-23, penalties, 2-20, 9-68.

Hawk hopes shot down by Sumrall

Although Hancock North Central's gridders, all 16 of them, lost their opener to Sumrall Friday night 15-0 in the Hawk's Stadium, coach Pat Morris was satisfied with the team's progress and believes they will win some games.

"The lads showed good spirit and didn't let down," Morris said. "They made some mistakes that we are going to iron out but I was particularly impressed with the running of Eddie Ruzicka — he was outstanding on defense."

Morris also pointed out that two men had left the squad, leaving only 16, which is not enough for a scrimmage and the team had gone into its first game with little or no body contact practice.

Ronnie Sumrall sparked the attack for the visiting Bobcats and scored the first touchdown in the opening quarter on an 8-yard run and added another in the second on an 11-yard dash giving the DeSoto Conference lads a 12-0 lead at halftime. The winner's final came in the last quarter on an 11-yard carry by Steve Board.

The Hawks have undoubtedly been improved by their first game but not enough to cope with this Friday's opponent, Ocean Springs. The Greyhounds were the No. 1 choice

Ten teams will participate in a women's softball tournament Sunday in Elwood Memorial Park. Mrs. George Stolz, recreational director, announced. Batter up, time is 9 a.m.

Granddaddy S. Wagner wins fame on links

Stanley Wagner of Pass Christian shot a not so Sunday to win the Granddaddy Day Tournament at Pass Christian Golf Club. Sheldon Souzoucou and Henry Anderson tied for runner-up with 73.

Wagner also tied for first in Sunday's sweepstakes with Charles Niolet, both shooting 69s. Low Kisting of Slidell was second with 71 and Howard Harper, Pass Christian, third with 74. Saturday it was Kisting first with 70, followed by Red Reimke, Bay St. Louis, 74, and Niolet, 75.

Next event, then than the weekly sweepstakes, is a mixed Scotch foursome tournament slated for Sept. 24. Each foursome will consist of two teams, a man and woman, who will play selective drives and alternate shots.
